

Logging in for the first time

Once an account has been created for you, you will be sent a link to the ROOT and information about logging in. The first time that you log in, you will be asked to complete the following steps:

Acceptable Use Agreement

Before being granted access to the ROOT, each user is required to confirm their understanding and acceptance of what constitutes acceptable use of the ROOT. Each user will be required to agree to a number of statements.

Your details

You will be asked to verify and update your details. This includes providing your RCSLT membership number (where applicable) so make sure you have this to hand before getting started!